

celebrating our local waterways through the arts

A Year-Long Eco-Arts Festival
August 2010 – August 2011

Sponsored by The University of Hartford & The Park River Watershed Revitalization Initiative

Exhibitions, Conferences, Cultural and Ecological Projects

University of Hartford

- August 2010 Our Campus, Our Planet. An Ecological action by 1500 freshmen
- September 2010-May 2011 Ecological Perspectives. The Humanities Center Seminar
- September 2010-Aug. 2011 Park River Music Series. Concerts and musical improvisations along the river by Prof. Ken Steen and Hartt Students
- November 2010 Ancient Cataclysms: Ecological Catastrophes in the Ancient World. Symposium hosted by the Maurice Greenberg Center for Judaic Studies
- February 2011 Water on Our Doorstep: The Park River Watershed Past, Present, and Future. An Interdisciplinary Conference of artists, academics, practitioners in watershed management, and students.

CCSU

- October-November 2010 Izzy the Frog in Lumina Land. An Exhibition at the Chen Art Gallery
- April 2011 Water: A Three-Day Symposium. Sponsored by Global Environmental Sustainability Action Coalition

Museums

- October-November 2010 Ole Oguibe Exhibition, and accompanying Nature Walks and Lectures. Real Art Ways
- April 2011 A Night at the Museum focusing on Eco Art. CCSU & The New Britain Museum of American Art (NBMAA)
- May 2011 Painting competition: Paintings of Olmstead's Walnut Park. NBMAA

Participating Organizations: Billings Forge, CT Explored, Connecticut Forest & Park Association, Riverfront Recapture, The Wadsworth Atheneum

Questions? Contact Sherry Buckberrough, buckberro@hartford.edu, and Mary Pelletier, maryvrp@parkriver.org, "Park Water Arts" on Facebook, or www.parkriver.org